SELECTIVE CRITICAL BIBLIOGRAPHY

OF INTEREST TO STUDENTS OF FRENCH AND SPANISH

PREFATORY NOTE: This Bibliography is intended for students and instructors using the University of Oklahoma Library. The items included are almost exclusively current periodicals which may be used with profit by those doing reading and research in linguistic, literary, and pedagogical topics. The Bibliography was prepared by Loretta Cavin, Jacques Chambers, Richard Ezell, Gertrud Hampton, Claudio Larragoite, Mary S. Price, Tommie S. Ragsdale, Mary H. Rahhal, and Anna L. Smith. Prepared during the spring of 1965, it is a complete revision of previous Critical Bibliographies and the fourth version of this work. All versions have been directed by Willis H. Bowen in the course in Romance Bibliography.

405
M72L

PUBLICATIONS OF THE MODERN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA (PMLA)

1886. New York and Menasha, Wisconsin. Formerly quarterly, now usually six issues a year. Editor, John Hurt Fisher. Library has complete file. Indices: 1-50, 1935; 51-60, 1945.

Supplements contain list of members, list of departmental chairmen, list of publishers, learned societies, etc. Annual Bibliography, especially important since 1956. The latter is indispensable to any student wishing to keep up with developments in his field. In recent years the sections entitled "For Members Only", the "FL Program," and the "Cooperative English Program," have been full of important information and lively shop talk. Otherwise this is strictly a research publication printing studies usually highly technical, meticulously documented, upon all branches of the modern languages and literature. Its influence and that of the Modern Language Association are enormous. Articles in the fields of American and English studies predominate. There are no reviews.

R32L

REVUE DE LITTÉRATURE COMPARÉE (RLC)

1921. Paris. Quarterly. Editor, M. Bataillon. Library has complete file, except for vols. 16-17 (1936-37); 21 (1947); 23 (1949). Publication was suspended 1941-1946.

Founded by F. Baldensperger, P. Hazard, J. M. Carré. Articles in French, English, German, and Italian on all aspects of general and comparative literature. Many well-arranged book lists, bibliographies, reviews, lists of theses. Best in its field, known the world over.

809.05 R328 REVUE DES LETTRES MODERNES, Histoire des idées et des littératures (RLM)

1954. Paris. Monthly, 1954-1957, quarterly since then. Editor, M. J. Minard. Library has nos. 2-45; 63; 74-75; 78-84.

Articles on important writers and ideas of today. Some issues deal exclusively with one writer or one book. Good bibliographies. An important and exciting periodical. Our holdings need to be made complete.

405 St94ln STUDIA NEOPHILOLOGICA, A Journal of Germanic and Romance Philology (SN)

1929. Uppsala, Sweden. Twice a year. Editor, Bengt Hasselrot. Library has vol. 11 (1938) to date.

479.05
R66

ROMANIA (Rom)

1872. Paris. Quarterly. Editor, Félix Lecoy. Library has complete file. Indices: 1-30, 31-60.

Founded by Paul Meyer and Gaston Paris, a giant in the early days of Romance linguistics and medieval studies. Still probably the best quarterly for Romance philology and an abundant source for footnotes. Contains many medieval texts otherwise unavailable. Has tables listing words studied, authors and manuscripts mentioned. Analysis of periodicals and events in the field given at the end of each issue under the headings "Chronique" and "Périodiques."

479.05
R661r

ROMANIC REVIEW (RR)

1910. New York. Columbia University Press. Quarterly. Editor, Jean Hytier. Library has complete file.

Articles, reviews, bibliographies for Romance languages and literatures. Especially good for the Renaissance and the 18th century. Publishes research articles, documents, notes, critical discussions. Ably edited. Book reviews are usually complete and reliable. Indispensable for serious students in the field.

479
Z37r

ZEITSCHRIFT FUR ROMANISCHE PHILOLOGIE (ZRP)

1877. Tübingen, Germany. 6 numbers a year. Editor, Walther von Wartburg. Library has vols. 1-40; 43 to date. Indices: 1-30; 31-50; 62-65.

With ROMANIA the most important periodical dealing with historical Romance linguistics and earlier literatures. Indispensable for students in the field. Contains documents, texts, articles, reviews, bibliographies, lists of recent publications, including lists of articles in other periodicals. Articles are in German, English, French, Italian, and Spanish.

Publishes also a supplement (BEIHEFTE). Library has volumes 1-76; 80-93; 95-108. It contains longer documents and texts.

Also publishes a bibliographical supplement. Library has vols. 1-33; 35-38; 44-57. It should be consulted before exhaustive study of a subject in the field is undertaken (Grisby). See Levy's remarks in Cabeen-Holmes, item 1.

B47h

BIBLIOTHEQUE D'HUMANISME ET RENAISSANCE (BHR)

1941. Geneva, Switzerland. 3 times a year. Editor, Eugénie Droz. Library has complete file.

This important periodical had three predecessors:

847
R11Yr

1) REVUE DES ETUDES RABELAISIENNES (RER) 10 v. 1903-1912. Paris

840.5
R328s

2) REVUE DU SEIZIÈME SIÈCLE (RSS) 10 v. 1913-1933. Paris

944.028
H88

3) HUMANISME ET RENAISSANCE (H&R) 7 v. in 6 v. 1934-1940. Paris

These four periodicals, of which the Library has complete files, form an important corps of Renaissance materials, The present form of the series (BHR) is the most important periodical dealing with the Renaissance, particularly but not exclusively its French aspects. It contains documents, articles, reviews, bibliographies. The articles are not confined to France nor to literature. They are written in French, English, German, and Italian. Constantly growing in importance to all students of the Renaissance.

840.5
C11s

CAHIERS DU SUD (CS)

1915. Marseilles and Paris. 6 times a year. Editor, Leon-Gabriel Gros. Library has scattered holdings before 1949, complete since then.

One of the most important reviews dealing with contemporary literature. Many of the most interesting present-day French writers have contributed to it. Contains a variety of different kinds of writing. Reviews current materials.

840.5
Es66

L'ESPRIT CREATEUR (ECr)

1961. Minneapolis, Minnesota. Quarterly. Editor, John D. Erickson. Library has complete file.

Each number devoted to one author or one theme. Articles in French or English. Interesting topics. Fills a need for journal with short notes.

440.5
F84m

LE FRANÇAIS MODERNE (FM), revue consacré à l'étude de la langue française.

1933. Paris. Centre national de la recherche scientique. Quarterly. Editors, P. Fouché and S. Pighon. Library has complete file. Index 1-10.

Contains articles and reviews dealing manily with the French language from the sixteenth century to the presetn. Subjects include language of writers, phonetics, morphology, syntax, lexicography, dialectology. Well-written and stimulating. Has a review of reviews.

440.5
F88r

FRENCH REVIEW (FR)

1927. Baltimore, Maryland. American Association of Teachers of French. 6 times a year. Editor, Leon S. Roudiez. Library has complete file.

Articles on literature, language, teaching methods, scholarship, information about France, AATF activities, news about the profession. Comparatively few articles on literature or language before the 19th century. Some articles are of small interest to high school teachers who make up the bulk of membership in the Association. Reviews of textbooks, books of criticism, new literature. Every teacher of French at any level and advanced students need to belong to the AATF and to use the FRENCH REVIEW.

840.5
F889

FRENCH STUDIES (FS)

1947. Oxford, England. Blackwell. Quarterly. Editor, Alfred Ewert. Library lacks volumes 1-4.

Very good articles on all periods of French literature and language. Written in English and French. Selected bibliographies. Quite a long section of excellent, well-written reviews. An essential journal. We badly need the first four volumes.

054
M53f

MERCURE DE FRANCE (MdF)

1890. Paris. Monthly. Editor, Blaise Gautier. Suspended July 1940 to December 1946. Library has complete file.

Important articles in French concerning a wide variety of subjects, especially criticism and literary history. It has long been one of France's most important cultural periodicals. It publishes a good many original stories and poems, articles, gives chronicles of newly published books in the literary field, reviews, news of the theater. Excellent for research in modern French literature.

054
N85r

NOUVELLE REVUE FRANCAISE (NRF)

1909. Paris. Gallimard. Monthly. Editors, Jean Paulhan and Marcel Arland. Suspended September 1914-May 1919 and 1944-1953. When it resumed publication in May 1953, for a short time it added a second NOUVELLE

054 N847 to its title. This confused the Library which gave it a new call number and continued to catalogue the periodical under the new call number even when the second NOUVELLE was dropped in 1957. Library has almost complete file.

NRF has had as its contributors and supporters the outstanding French writers of the 20th century. In many ways the most original, versatile, influential, brilliant French literary journal. It does not confine itself, however, wholely to French literature or French ideas. Should be used by anyone interested in studying the 20th century.

f840.5 N855 NOUVELLES LITTERAIRES (NL) artistiques et scientifiques

1922. Paris. Larousse. Format of weekly newspaper. Editor, André Bourin. Library has 1922-1940; 1953; 1955 to date. Publication suspended 1940-1945.

Wide range of articles, stories, bibliographies, reviews of play, novels, poetry. Contains some of the best criticism being written anywhere today. There are also scientific articles and reviews. Excellent for keeping abreast of what is being done in French literary scholarship. Indispensable to all students of modern French literature.

q840.5 P44i LA PETITE ILLUSTRATION (PI)

1843. Paris. One or two times monthly. Supplement to ILLUSTRATION. Library has nearly complete file for 1914-1939. Ceased publication in 1944.

This periodical had three successors:

054 F844is FRANCE-ILLUSTRATION: SUPPLÉMENT THÉATRAL ET LITTÉRAIRE

1945. Paris. Monthly or semi-monthly. Editor, Vincent Delpuech. 1944-1955. Library has complete file.

q054 F349 FEMINA-ILLUSTRATION: SUPPLEMENT

1956. Paris. Monthly. Library has partial file.

q792.05 Av15 L'AVANT-SCÈNE (FEMINA THÉATRE)

1949. Paris. Bi-monthly. Editor, Robert Chantequ. Library has vols. 279-290. Title varies slightly.

These four periodicals are important because they contain the text of hundreds of plays and some short novels, together with commentary and criticism. Unfortunately there is no complete index of the plays anywhere. These volumes in French are of great value to students of drama.

054
R317

REVUE DES COURS ET CONFÉRENCES (RCC)

1892. Paris. Weekly 1892-1912; semi-monthly during the school years 1912-1940. Each volume in two parts called première série and deuxième série. Suspended 1914-1921. 41 vols. in 82. None published after 1940. Library has complete file.

This periodical is of great value in many fields, for it contains the lectures given at the Sorbonne and other French schools and universities by the outstanding scholars of France. An abundant source of material not found elsewhere.

792.05
R32

REVUE D'HISTOIRE DU THEATRE (RHT)
